CASE NO. CV11-04428-AHM (OPx)

SCHEDULING AND CASE
MANAGEMENT ORDER

SEE LAST PAGE FOR PRETRIAL AND TRIAL DATES

18 I. APPLICABLE SCHEDULE

19 This case shall be litigated according to the schedule on the last page.
20 Ordinarily, those dates are determined after consultation with the parties at the 21 Rule 16(b) Scheduling Conference, and this Order is distributed to them at that 22 time. Accordingly, the dates and requirements are firm. The Court is very unlikely 23 to grant continuances, even if stipulated by the parties, unless the parties establish 24 good cause through a strong, concrete showing.

25 The following provisions sometimes refer to the Local Rules. PLEASE
26 NOTE THAT UNDER RULE 83-7, THE VIOLATION OR FAILURE TO 27 CONFORM TO THE LOCAL RULES MAY SUBJECT THE OFFENDING
28 PARTY OR COUNSEL TO A VARIETY OF SANCTIONS.

II. DISCOVERY AND DISCOVERY CUTOFF

A. Non-Expert Discovery

All non-expert discovery shall be completed by the non-expert discovery cutoff on the last page. THIS IS NOT THE DATE BY WHICH DISCOVERY REQUESTS MUST BE SERVED; IT IS THE DATE BY WHICH ALL DISCOVERY IS TO BE COMPLETED. Any motion challenging the adequacy of responses to discovery must be filed, served and calendared sufficiently in advance of the discovery cutoff date to permit the responses to be obtained before that date, if the motion is granted.

In an effort to provide further guidance to the parties, the Court notes the following:

1. Depositions. All depositions shall be scheduled to commence sufficiently in advance of the discovery cutoff date to permit their completion and to permit the deposing party enough time to bring any discovery motions concerning the deposition prior to the cutoff date. Given the requirements of notice and “meet and confer,” that means that in most cases a planned motion to compel would have to be discussed with opposing counsel approximately six weeks before the cutoff.

2. Written Discovery. All interrogatories, requests for production of documents, and requests for admissions shall be served sufficiently in advance of the discovery cutoff date to permit the discovering party enough time to challenge (via motion practice) responses deemed to be deficient.

3. Discovery Motions. Whenever possible, the Court expects the parties to resolve discovery problems among themselves in a courteous, reasonable and professional manner. If they do so, resort to the Court for guidance in discovery is seldom necessary.

The Magistrate Judge assigned to this case will rule on discovery motions. The Court requires compliance with Local Rules 37-1 through 37-

1 4 in the preparation and filing of discovery motions. Any review of a
2 Magistrate Judge's discovery order must proceed by way of noticed motion
3 under Local Rule 7-3. In accordance with 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1)(A), the 4 Court will not reverse any such order, including one imposing sanctions, 5 unless the moving party demonstrates that the Magistrate Judge's order "is 6 clearly erroneous or contrary to law." If this Court overrules a Magistrate
7 Judge's order denying discovery, the Discovery Cutoff will, upon
8 application, be extended.

9 4. Exceptions to Discovery Cutoff. The Court establishes a 10 discovery cutoff date to facilitate the timely, efficient and just resolution of 11 this case. So long as that objective is in no way impeded, and provided that 12 the parties meet the other conditions in this paragraph, the parties are 13 permitted to conduct discovery beyond the cutoff date. These conditions 14 are: (a) they all agree to do so; (b) no discovery motions resulting from 15 post-cutoff discovery disputes may be brought; and (c) the fact that 16 discovery is being conducted after the cutoff will not be cause for continuing 17 the trial date or for not complying with the other deadlines and requirements 18 in this order. Thus, parties conducting discovery after the cutoff accept the 19 risk that they will not be able to enforce their rights in the event of a dispute.

20 B. Expert Discovery

21 If expert discovery necessitates motion practice which cannot be resolved
22 until after the deadlines set forth below for motion practice, then those deadlines
23 shall not apply. But because Local Rules 7-3 and 37-1 require ample time to meet
24 and confer as well as brief the matters, the parties should commence expert 25 discovery shortly after the initial designations of experts, because in no event will 26 the Final Pre-Trial Conference and trial dates be continued merely because expert 27 discovery is still underway.
28

III. MOTIONS AND MOTION CUTOFF DATE

A. General Provisions.

Motions are heard on Mondays at 10:00 a.m., unless the Court orders otherwise. If Monday is a national holiday, the motion will not be heard the next day (Tuesday) but instead automatically set for the next succeeding Monday.

All law and motion matters, except for motions in limine, must be set for hearing (not filing) by the motion cutoff date specified on the last page. Issues left undetermined after the passage of the motion cutoff date should be listed as issues for trial in the final pre-trial conference order. As an exception to the above, motions in limine dealing with evidentiary matters may be heard at the Final Pre-Trial Conference or (at the Court's discretion) at the start of trial; however, the Court will not hear or resolve summary judgment motions disguised as motions in limine.

The applicable Local Rules are Rules 7-1, et seq. If any party does not oppose a motion, that party shall submit a written statement that it does not oppose the motion, in accordance with Local Rule 7-16. Failure to meet the time limits set forth in Local Rule 7 may be deemed consent to the granting of the motion. Local Rule 7-12. The Court will not decide late-filed motions, and a party or counsel who files such late papers may be subject to sanctions under Local Rule 7-13.

Reply papers shall be limited to argument and/or authorities responsive to the opposition papers. The Court will ignore new matter that was improperly introduced.

To assure that the Court receives oppositions and replies in a timely fashion, courtesy copies of all oppositions and replies, conformed to reflect that they have been filed, shall be deposited in the drop box in the entrance way to chambers, to the left of Courtroom 14. All such papers shall be filed "loose" - - i.e., not inside envelopes.

B. Motions under Fed.R.Civ.P 12.

1 See the Court's "Initial Case-Specific Order Following Filing of Complaint
2 Assigned to Judge Matz."

3 C. Summary Judgment Motions.

4 Parties need not, and in many cases they should not, wait until the motion
5 cutoff to bring motions for summary judgment or partial summary judgment.
6 However, in virtually every case, the Court expects that the party moving for 7 summary judgment will provide more than the minimum twenty-eight (28) day
8 notice for motions. Summary judgment motions are, of course, very fact-9 dependent. All parties should prepare their papers in a fashion that will assist the 10 Court in absorbing the mass of facts. (E.g., generous use of tabs, tables of 11 contents, headings, indices, etc.) The parties are directed to comply precisely with 12 Local Rules 56-1 through 56-4. The Court will place a great deal of importance on 13 these respective statements and the parties shall deliver to chambers an electronic 14 copy of the respective "Statement of Uncontroverted Facts and Conclusions of 15 Law" and "Statement of Genuine Issues."

16 1. Statement of Undisputed Facts and Statement of Genuine Issues

17 The Separate Statement of Undisputed Facts shall be prepared in a two 18 column format. The left hand column sets forth the allegedly undisputed fact. The 19 right hand column sets forth the evidence that supports the factual statement. The 20 fact statements should be set forth in sequentially numbered paragraphs. Each 21 paragraph should contain a narrowly focused statement of fact. Each numbered 22 paragraph should address a single subject in as concise a manner as possible.

23 The opposing party's Statement of Genuine Issues must be in two columns
24 and track the movant's separate statement exactly as prepared. The left hand 25 column must restate the allegedly undisputed fact, and the right hand column must 26 state either that it is undisputed or disputed. The opposing party may dispute all or 27 only a portion of the statement, but if disputing only a portion, it must clearly 28 indicate what part is being disputed, followed by the opposing party's evidence

1 controverting the fact. The Court will not wade through a document to determine
2 whether a fact really is in dispute. To demonstrate that a fact is disputed, the 3 opposing party must briefly state why it disputes the moving party's asserted fact,
4 cite to the relevant exhibit or other piece of evidence, and describe what it is in that 5 exhibit or evidence that refutes the asserted fact. No legal argument should be set 6 forth in this document.

7 The opposing party may submit additional material facts that bear on or 8 relate to the issues raised by the movant, which shall follow the format described 9 above for the moving party's separate statement. These additional facts shall 10 continue in sequentially numbered paragraphs (i.e., if movant's last statement of 11 fact was set forth in paragraph 30, then the first new fact will be set forth in 12 paragraph 31), and shall set forth in the right hand column the evidence that 13 supports that statement.

14 2. Supporting Evidence

15 No party should submit any evidence other than the specific items of 16 evidence or testimony necessary to support or controvert a proposed statement of 17 undisputed fact. Thus, for example, the entire transcript of a deposition, entire sets 18 of interrogatory responses, and documents that do not specifically support or 19 controvert material in the separate statements should not be submitted in support of 20 opposition to a motion for summary judgment. The Court will not consider such 21 material.

22 Evidence submitted in support of or opposition to a motion should be 23 submitted either by way of stipulation or as exhibits to declarations sufficient to 24 authenticate the proffered evidence, and should not be attached to the 25 Memorandum of Points and Authorities. The Court will accept counsel's 26 authentication of deposition transcripts, of written discovery responses and of the 27 receipt of documents in discovery if the fact that the document was in the 28 opponent's possession is of independent significance. Documentary evidence as to 1 which there is no stipulation regarding foundation must be accompanied by the 2 testimony, either by declaration or properly authenticated deposition transcript, of 3 a witness who can establish authenticity. The parties should use colored markers 4 to highlight the testimony or portions of exhibits that they are relying on.

5 3. Objections to Evidence

6 If a party disputes a fact based in whole or in part on an evidentiary
7 objection, the ground of the objection, as indicated above, should be stated in a 8 separate statement but not argued in that document.

9 4. Evidence Not Properly Cited

10 When a party relies on deposition testimony in a summary judgment motion 11 without citing to page and line numbers, the Court in its discretion may exclude or 12 disregard the supposed “evidence.” See Orr v. Bank of America, 285 F.3d 764, 13 775 (9th Cir. 2002).

14 5. Cross-Motions on Identical Issues of Law

15 The parties shall avoid filing cross-motions for summary judgment on 16 identical issues of law, such that the papers would be unnecessarily cumulative.
17 (E.g., a party’s moving and reply papers on its own motion would advance the 18 same arguments as its opposition papers to the other party’s cross-motion). The 19 parties shall discuss in advance which party should be designated as the moving 20 party. The moving party’s reply papers shall be limited to responding to the non-
21 moving party’s opposition papers. The non-moving party may not file a sur-reply
22 unless the Court first grants leave to do so.

23 D. Motions in Limine.

24 Parties often do not focus on evidentiary and related issues until the last 25 stages of trial preparation. This is a mistake. Such motions can be very helpful in 26 narrowing issues, limiting or allowing evidence and promoting settlement. With 27 these benefits in mind, the Court encourages the parties carefully to consider filing
28 such motions before the last stages of trial preparation. In any event, the parties

1 must file and respond to motions in limine in accordance with Local Rule 7 by the 2 date specified on the last page of this order. The Court will make every effort to 3 rule upon motions in limine at or before the Final Pre-Trial Conference.

4 E. Oral Argument.

5 Sometimes the Court will not hear oral argument. When that is the case, the 6 Court will notify the parties in advance. If there is a hearing, tentative rulings will 7 often be available in the courtroom approximately one-half hour before the call of 8 the calendar. The parties are expected to be familiar with the tentative ruling at the 9 time of argument.

10 IV. APPLICATIONS AND STIPULATIONS FOR EXTENSIONS OF 11 TIME

12 A. Applications or Stipulations to Extend the Time to File any 13 Required Document or to Continue any Pretrial or Trial Date.

14 No stipulations extending scheduling requirements or modifying applicable
15 rules are effective until and unless the Court approves them. Both applications and 16 stipulations must set forth:

- 17 1. the existing due date or hearing date;
- 18 2. specific, concrete reasons supporting good cause for granting the 19 extension. In this regard, a statement that an extension “will promote settlement”
20 is insufficient. The requesting party or parties must indicate the status of ongoing 21 negotiations: have written proposals been exchanged? Is counsel in the process of 22 reviewing a draft settlement agreement? Has a mediator been selected?
- 23 3. whether there have been prior requests for extensions, and whether these 24 were granted or denied by the Court.

25 ///

26 ///

27 ///

28 B. Ex Parte Applications.

1 Think twice! The Court strongly discourages ex parte applications. See
 2 Mission Power Eng. Co. v. Continental Casualty Co., 883 F.Supp. 488 (C.D.Calif.
 3 1995). Strict adherence to Local Rule 7-19 is necessary.

4 V. PRE-TRIAL CONFERENCE AND LOCAL RULE 16 FILINGS

5 A. General Provisions.

6 The Final Pre-Trial Conference (“PTC”) will be held at 11:00 a.m. on the 7 date specified, unless the Court expressly waived a PTC at the Scheduling
 8 Conference. (In the rare cases where the Court waives a PTC, the parties must 9 follow Local Rule 16-11.) If adjustments in the Court’s calendar to accommodate 10 congestion become necessary, the Court may re-calendar the PTC instead of the 11 trial date. Therefore, the parties should assume that if the PTC goes forward, the 12 trial will go forward without continuance, although some brief period of trailing 13 may prove necessary.

14 The lead trial attorney on behalf of every party shall attend both the PTC and 15 all meetings of the parties in preparation for the PTC. Unless counsel has been 16 excused for good cause shown in advance of the PTC, the Court reserves the right
 17 to designate the attorney attending the PTC as lead trial counsel.

18 A continuance of the PTC at the parties' request or by stipulation is highly 19 unlikely. Specifically, failure to complete discovery is not a ground for 20 continuance. In the unlikely event that the Court agrees to continuing the PTC,
 21 the trial date is likely to be delayed as a result, possibly for a few months. If a 22 change in the trial date is necessitated or likely because of the Court’s calendar or 23 otherwise, modifications of that date will be discussed at the PTC.

24 At the PTC, the parties should be prepared to discuss means of streamlining 25 the trial, including, but not limited to: bifurcation; presentation of foundational 26 and non-critical testimony and direct testimony by deposition excerpts, narrative 27 summaries and/or stipulations as to the content of testimony; presentation of 28 testimony on direct examination or by declaration subject to cross-examination;

1 and qualification of experts by admitted resumes. The Court will attempt to rule
 2 upon previously-filed motions in limine at the PTC. The Court will also discuss 3 settlement.

4 B. Form of Final Pre-Trial Conference Order (“PTCO”).

5 The proposed PTCO shall be lodged seven calendar days before the PTC.
 6 Adherence to this time requirement is necessary for in-chambers preparation of the 7 matter. The form of the proposed PTCO shall comply with Appendix A to the 8 Local Rules and the following:

9 1. Please place in “ALL CAPS” and in bold the separately numbered 10 headings for each category in the PTCO (e.g., “1. THE PARTIES” or “7.
 11 CLAIMS AND DEFENSES OF THE PARTIES”).

12 2. Please include a Table of Contents at the beginning.

13 3. In specifying the surviving pleadings under Section 1, please state
 14 which claims or counterclaims have been dismissed or abandoned. E.g. “Plaintiff’s 15 second cause of action for breach of fiduciary duty has been dismissed.” Also, in 16 multiple party cases where not all claims or counterclaims will be prosecuted
 17 against all remaining parties on the other side, please specify to which party each 18 claim or counterclaim is directed.

19 4. In specifying the parties’ claims and defenses under Section 7, each 20 party shall closely follow the examples set forth in Appendix A of the Local Rules.

21 5. In drafting the PTCO, the Court also expects that the parties will 22 attempt to agree on and set forth as many non-contested facts as possible. The 23 Court will usually read the uncontested facts to the jury at the start of the trial. A 24 carefully drafted and comprehensively stated stipulation of facts will reduce the 25 length of trial and increase jury understanding of the case.

26 6. In drafting the factual issues in dispute for the PTCO, the parties
 27 should attempt to state issues in ultimate fact form, not in the form of evidentiary 28 fact issues (e.g., “Was the defendant negligent? Was such negligence the

1 proximate cause of injury to the plaintiff? Was the plaintiff negligent?" etc. Not
 2 "Was the plaintiff standing on the corner of 5th and Spring at 10 a.m. on May 3?"
 3 etc.). The parties may, if they so desire, list sub-issues under the headings of 4 ultimate fact issues, but should not use this as a device to list disputes over
 5 evidentiary matters. In general, the issues of fact should set forth the disputed 6 elements of the claim or affirmative defenses.

7 7. The Court may well submit fact issues to the jury in the form of 8 findings on a special verdict. The issues of fact should track the elements of a 9 claim or defense on which the jury will be required to make findings.

10 8. Issues of law should state legal issues on which the Court will be 11 required to rule at or after the PTC, or during the trial, and should not list ultimate 12 fact issues to be submitted to the trier of fact.

13 C. Rule 16 Filings; Memoranda; Witness Lists (Including Experts);
 14 Exhibit Lists.

15 1. Generally. The parties must comply fully with the requirements of 16 Local Rule 16. They shall file carefully prepared Memoranda of Contentions of 17 Fact and Law (which may also serve as the trial brief), along with their respective 18 Witness Lists and Exhibit Lists, all in accordance with Local Rule 16. See the last 19 page for dates. Failure to include the name of an expert witness precludes a party 20 from calling that expert witness. An expert witness's direct testimony shall consist 21 of a non-exhaustive description of his background and the contents of his Rule 26 22 report.

23 2. Pre-Trial Exhibit Stipulation. The parties shall prepare a Pre-Trial
 24 Exhibit Stipulation which shall contain each party's numbered list of all trial
 25 exhibits, with objections, if any, to each exhibit including the basis of the objection
 26 and the offering party's response. All exhibits to which there is no objection shall 27 be deemed admitted. All parties shall stipulate to the authenticity of exhibits
 28 whenever possible, and the Pre-Trial Exhibit Stipulation shall identify any exhibits whose authenticity has not been stipulated to and the specific reasons for the party's failure to stipulate.

The Stipulation shall be substantially in the following form:

Pre-Trial Exhibit Stipulation

Plaintiff(s)' Exhibits

Number	Description	If Objection, State Grounds	Response to Objection
---------------	--------------------	------------------------------------	------------------------------

Defendant(s)' Exhibits

Number	Description	If Objection, State Grounds	Response to Objection
---------------	--------------------	------------------------------------	------------------------------

The Pre-Trial Exhibit Stipulation shall be filed at the same time counsel lodge the PTCO. Failure to comply with this paragraph shall constitute a waiver of all objections.

3. Consequences of Non-Compliance. If counsel fail to file the required Pre-Trial documents or fail to appear at the Pre-Trial Conference and such failure is not otherwise satisfactorily explained to the Court, (a) the cause shall stand dismissed for failure to prosecute, if such failure occurs on the part of the plaintiff, (b) default judgment shall be entered if such failure occurs on the part of the defendant; or (c) the Court may take such action as it deems appropriate.

D. Trial Witness Estimate Form

At the pre-trial conference the parties will be given a Joint Trial Witness Time Estimate Form, which they will be required to fill in and give to the Court on the first day of trial.

E. Real Time Court Reporting Requirement

Each party must email the court reporter at cindy@rainbowsplash.com prior to the PTC a prepared typed list of proper names, unusual or scientific terms, or any other uncommon words that are likely to be used during trial. This list will enable the court reporter to prepare accurate transcripts in real time.

F. Jury Instructions, Verdict Forms and Special Interrogatories.

1. On the dates specified on the attached "Schedule of Pretrial Dates", the parties are required jointly to submit one set of agreed upon substantive instructions, a verdict form and, if necessary, special interrogatories. "Substantive jury instructions" means all instructions relating to the elements of all claims and defenses in the case. The parties need not submit general instructions. The parties shall deliver to chambers an electronic copy of these filings at the time the documents are filed.

2. If the parties cannot agree upon one complete set of substantive instructions, special or general verdict form and/or special interrogatories, they shall file two documents with the Court: first, the agreed upon instructions and verdict forms, and second a joint statement regarding the disputed instructions, verdicts and interrogatories. In the second document (the joint statement) the parties shall place the text of the disputed instruction (or verdict or interrogatory) with an identification of the party proposing it and following that text they shall place the opposing party's statement of objections, along with legal authority in support of the objections (not to exceed one page) and proposed alternative language where appropriate. The entirety of the objection shall be typed in capital letters.

Each party shall provide an electronic copy when it serves its proposed instructions on opposing parties to simplify the preparation of the joint statement regarding the disputed instructions.

Both the agreed on set, and the joint statement re disputed instructions are to be filed at the Final Pre-Trial Conference.

3. A table of contents shall be included with all jury instructions submitted to the Court. The table of contents shall set forth the following:

- a. The number of the instruction;
- b. A brief title of the instruction;
- c. The source of the instruction; and
- d. The page number of the instruction.

For example:

Number	Title	Source	Page Number
1	Burden of Proof	9 th Cir. 12.2	5

The parties need not submit a separate copy of instructions without citations to authority.

4. The Court prefers counsel to use the instructions from the Manual of Model Jury Instructions for the Ninth Circuit (West 2007 (to be published around June 2007)) where applicable. Those instructions are “on-line” in the Ninth Circuit’s website. Where California law is to be applied and the above instructions are not applicable, the Court prefers counsel to use California Jury Instructions - Civil (CACI). If neither of these sources is applicable, counsel are directed to use the instructions in O’Malley, Grenig & Lee, Federal Jury Practice and Instructions (Fifth).

5. Modifications of instructions from the foregoing sources (or any other form instructions) must specifically state the modification made to the original form instruction and the authority supporting the modification.

G. Joint Statement of the Case and Requests for Voir Dire.

On the same date the parties file their joint and separate proposed jury instructions, the parties shall also file their joint statement of the case which the

1 Court shall read to all prospective jurors prior to the commencement of voir dire.
 2 Ordinarily, the statement should be not longer than two or three paragraphs.

3 The Court conducts voir dire of all prospective jurors. On the same date that 4 the parties file their Joint Statement of the Case, each party shall file its separate
 5 proposed voir dire questions. The parties need not submit requests for standard
 6 voir dire questions, such as education, current occupation, marital status, prior jury 7 service, etc., but should include only proposed questions specifically tailored to the 8 parties and issues of the case.

9 H. Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law.

10 For a non-jury trial, the parties shall lodge their proposed findings of fact 11 and conclusions of law not later than one week before trial. The parties shall 12 deliver to chambers an electronic copy of these findings in Word or WordPerfect
 13 11 compatible format. Please see the Court's Civil Trial Order.

14 VI. SETTLEMENT

15 Local Rule 16-15 provides that the Settlement Conference shall be 16 concluded not later than 45 days before the Pretrial Conference. The Court 17 believes that in most cases completion of all discovery and dispositive motions will 18 help the parties assess their positions before they embark on the costly pre-trial
 19 process. But sometimes parties find it more difficult to settle after they incurred
 20 the cost of all discovery and motion practice. The Court therefore strongly 21 encourages counsel and the parties to pursue settlement earlier.

22 The Court has a keen interest in helping the parties achieve settlement. If 23 the parties believe that it would be more likely that a settlement would be reached 24 if they conduct the settlement conference at a different time than that in the 25 attached schedule, they should conduct it at that time. In any event, as indicated in 26 the Schedule of Pretrial Dates attached hereto, the parties must file a Status Report
 27 re Settlement at the time that they file their respective memorandum of fact and 28 law, witness lists and exhibit lists.

1 This Court will not conduct settlement conferences in non-jury cases which 2 he is to try. In jury cases, the Court will conduct a settlement conference at the 3 parties' joint request if three conditions exist:

4 1. The parties are satisfied that the fact issues in the case will be tried to a 5 jury.

6 2. All significant pre-trial rulings which the Court must make have been 7 made.

8 3. The parties desire the Court to conduct the conference, understanding that 9 if settlement fails, the Court will try the case.

10 If the parties are inclined to select this Court to conduct the Mandatory
11 Settlement Conference, the parties should consult the Court's Standing Order re 12 Settlement Conference so that they fully understand the Court's requirements for 13 the settlement conference. That order will govern the settlement conference 14 procedures before this Court, but may also serve as a useful reference for 15 settlement conferences conducted pursuant to the other available procedures.

16 VII. WEBSITE

17 Copies of this Order and all other orders of this Court that may apply
18 specifically to this case are available on the Central District of California website,
19 at "www.cacd.uscourts.gov," under "Judge's Requirements."

20 VIII. TRIAL DATE

21 This case has been set for trial on the date specified on Exhibit "A" below at 22 8:00 A.M. Please review the Court's separately-issued Standing Order re Court
23 Trial for the procedures and requirements for bench trials.

1 IX. CONCLUSION

2 The Court thanks the parties and their counsel for their anticipated
3 cooperation in carrying out these requirements.
